A LUXURY.

Of all the accessories to the Toilet, none is more enjoyable than a rich fragrant perfume What can be more pleasing to the senses than the aroma of blooming flowers, and not only pleasing, but actually healthful? Pathologically the use of perfumes is exceedingly valuable, their well-known prophylactic properties exercise a most beneficial influence. To the invalid there is nothing more agreeable or refreshing than the Citrine odors of purely floral fragrance, avoiding always the heavy sweet perfumes of France and England, which are so apt to cloy and satiate the sense of smell, rather injuring than refreshing those persons of delicate organisation. In

MURRAY AND LANMAN'S
FLORIDA WATER.

We have the pure and natural fragrance of flowers in bloom, unaltered and unimpaired by the addition of any foreign substances, and entirely free from the heavy sweetness above referred to. It is, we believe, the only perfume possessing, in a marked degree, the power of

REFRSHING AND INVIGORATING

Both the body and the mind. It is adapted equally for the Handkerchief, the Toilet, and the Bath. For the first-mentioned nothing can be more exquisitely delicate, yet full-bodied; weeks after sprinkling, the handkerchief is found to exhale a perfect wealth of delicious aroma. For the Toilet it is quite unequalled, a few spoonfuls mixed with the water in the basin tending greatly to soften and beautify the skin; and we believe it to be a Perfume suitable for use

IN THE BATH,

Where its wonderful refreshing and invigorating properties give it peculiar value. In some parts of the world it is customary to empty from three to six bottles into each bath: but this quantity is not necessary—from a half to a whole bottle will be found to produce the most delightful effect, filling the bath-room with clouds of fragrance, and imparting a delicious buoyancy to the fatigued body and mind.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Always ask for the Florida Water, prepared by LANMAN and KEMP, New York, who are the sole Proprietors of the genuine article.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

COPERNICUS MAILS.

On Monday afternoon the steamer Copernicus, Captain Edward Hairby, arrived at Montevideo, having made a splendid run out to the Plate in 26 days, not calling at Rio, and hence not undergoing any quarantine here, as she brings a clean bill of health. Thanks to the attention of Captain Hairby and Mr. C. Horne, the indefatigable agent of the line in Montevideo, we received yesterday morning our London exchanges to the 30th March.

She brings the following passengers for Buenos Ayres:—

Mr. Jas. Roche.	T. Roche.
W. Flood.	F. Hart.
Mr. & Mrs. Davies.	J. Burns
Bridget Burns.	Catherine Hogan.
Alfred Watson.

Emigration.—The emigration movement still goes on actively, and meetings have been held in various parts of the country to promote it. The condition of the emigrants to America who are quartered on Ward's Island, in the Hudson River, is said to be most deplorable.

Parliament.—The Peace Preservation Bill for Ireland was brought forward by the Government on the 21st of March, and passed a second reading on the 22nd, by a majority of 425 against 13. An absurd statement to the effect that Mr. Bright had promised to restore Gibraltar to Spain, was contradicted by Mr. Gladstone, 'amid loud laughter.' Mr. Bright has much improved in health, and, it is said, will soon return to his Parliamentary duties.

IRELAND.

Another letter, purporting to come from the convict O'Donovan Rossa, has been published. Like the previous one, it makes grievous complaint of the ill-treatment he receives. His wife has been lecturing in Tipperary, and has been most enthusiastically received by the 'Nationalists.' A petition has been presented against the return of Mr. Bernal Osborne. Agrarian outrages continue.

FRANCE.

The trial of Prince Pierre Bonaparte began at Tours on March 21. It was brought to a conclusion on the 26th, when the jury pronounced a verdict of acquittal on all the charges. In the Civil Court the Prince has been condemned to pay 25,000 francs to the relatives of Victor Noir.

SPAIN.

The debates in the Cortes upon Figuerola's Loan Bill have been acrimonious. The Unionists strongly opposed it, and Prim, amidst great excitement, called upon the Radicals to support the Government. Eventually, the opposition amendment was rejected by 123 to 117. It is said that arbiters appointed to decide between the ex-Queen and her husband have given their decision in favor of the Queen, and Don Francisco will travel for a year. The ex-Queen has addressed a letter to the Pope.

AMERICA.

Sir Stafford and Lady Northcote are about to visit the United States for a few weeks; it is understood that Sir Stafford's visit will have relation to the negotiations for the transfer of territory of the Hudson's Bay Company, of which he is Chairman. The Government system of Education very much resembles, in many important features, the school systems of Canada, New York, Massachusetts, and Germany. An organisation has been set up at Hamburg for assisting the emigration of needy Jews from Russia to the United States; a hundred and fifty Jewish families have already arrived at Hamburg, whence they will be conveyed by one of the sailing vessels loading at that port. The Samaria has arrived; her passengers bring a serious charge against Captain Forsyth, of the Guion liner Manhattan, that in fair weather he disregarded the signals of the Samaria, and took no notice of her request for assistance. Nothing has been heard of the City of Boston.

The Wicklow Peerage Case will probably soon be decided, the evidence having been closed. The Mordaunt case has been again before the Court on the question of costs, It is stated that Sir Charles Mordaunt is about to visit South America on a sporting excursion.

Sporting.—The Oxford and Cambridge boat-race will take place on the 6th of April. The ex-champion Roberts has beaten the champion Cook in a match at billiards, the score at the close being, Roberts 1,001, Cook 932. Sir Joseph Hawley has replied at some length to Admiral Rous's letter. Blue Gown has been sold for £5,000 to an Austrian purchaser.

Obituary.—The deaths are announced of Countess Blucher, née Miss Dallas; Lord Graves; the Earl of Roden; the Marquis of Ailsa (from injuries received while hunting); and Mr. Edward Denison, M.P., at Melbourne.

Sheriff Mackenzie has been gazetted to the seat on the Scottish Judicial Bench, vacant through the death of the late Lord Barcaple.

Glasgow people have been running the risk of becoming unwitting hyppophagists. A pig-feeder near Carmyle, who is in custody, has admitted having prepared a number of hams of horse-flesh, preparatory to their being sent out to the butchers.

The Alexandra Theatre, Glasgow, was burnt down on March 24. It was a brick and wooden structure, and was destroyed in an hour. The London Dramatic Company were playing at the time. The damage is estimated at £2,000.

The Edinburgh correspondent of the Dumfries Herald writes:—A pretty scandal, in which a popular Scottish writer is concerned, is causing a good deal of talk in Edingburgh just now. The gentleman is not "nine times removed" from a good old Scottish family, and his wife can also trace her ancestry to a very good source. Both are well known in Edinburgh society. The husband seems to have carried on a correspondence, through the "agony column" of a daily contemporary, with a young married lady. Meetings took place between the two, and the upshot of it was that the husband of the one and the wife of the other soon discovered the correspondence. The case has got into the hands of the lawyers, and I am credibly informed the process before the Divorce Court will commence in a few weeks.

Mr. Foxall, one of the first Irish merchants who opened the tea trade from China to Dublin, died on March 9

St. Patrick's Day appears to have passed off amid comparative peace. We hear from Cork that the threatened Fenian demonstration on Saint Patrick's day was abandoned. There was no procession or collection at the Roman Catholic chapels for Fenian purposes. The only demonstration was a Fenian ball at the Athenæum on March 18th.

The Roman Catholic Bishops at present in Rome, it is generally believed, are drawing up a statement of their collective opinion upon the Land Bill. Any decision which the prelates may come to will, our Cork correspondent states, be certain to have a material effect on the minds of the peasantry.

The wife of the Convict Rossa lectured at Tipperary on March 17, and received an enthusiastic ovation. The hotel where she was staying, and some other houses in the town, were searched by the police for arms, but without success. On March 22 she read for the first time in the Theatre Royal, Limerick. Her debut was made the occasion of a regular furore by the Nationalists; they are described as being wild in their enthusiasm. The lady's elocution is said to be above the average. Everything passed of quietly.

The funeral of Casey, the Fenian poet, was celebrated on March 20. Upwards of 10,000 persons went in a procession through the city by a circuitous route to Glasnevin, the men marching three and four deep, wearing green sashes, and the women on cars, wearing green ribands. A green silk flag was laid on the coffin. There were no bands or banners, and all was very orderly. At the gate of the cemetery the coffin was placed on men's shoulders and carried. The band of the Catholic Young Men's Society, meeting it at the same place, played the 'Dead March in Saul.' After the interment, the people visited the memorial cross of the Manchester martyrs.

COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.

Money-Market and Discount.—A fair demand for money has existed for some time past, and rates have been tolerably uniform at 3 per cent.. occasionally ranging higher, up to 3½ per cent. Stock-Exchange loans from day to day, have been readily negotiable against English Government Securities, at from 2½ to 3 per cent.

The directors of the Bank of England met on March 24, and separated without making any alteration in the official minimum.

The Council of India will receive tenders on April, 6, for bills on Calcutta and Madras to the amount of £387,500.

Consols have been firm, and latterly show an improving tendency. They closed on March 28 at 93⅜ to 93½ for money and 93½ to 93⅝ for the account. Reduced and New Threes, at 91⅞ to 92 ex div., are fractionally higher: Exchequer Bills, par to 4s. prem. India Five per Cent. Stock, 113¼; ditto Four per cent, 100⅜.

River Plate Bank 15 premium.
Liverpool, 29th March, 1870.

The arrivals at this port from the River Plate district since our last of the 7th ult. have been slight.

The sales of fine unwashed Buenos Ayres during the past four weeks consist of B S & Co. 624 bales, 1st to 5th Mestizo, at 4⅞d. per lb. net all round; and W R 204 bales, fair No. 1 Mestizo, at 6d. About 70 bales washed Banda Oriental have also been disposed of at 11d. and 11½d. per lb.

Transactions in Santiago have been confined to G S 56 bales washed at 7½d., and C P 47 bales at 7d per lb.

The fine Colonial Wool sales in London which opened on the 16th ultimo and closed on the 5th inst., and at which 80,741 bales were brought forward, have gone off at an average advance of from ½d. to 1d. per lb., which is rather less than appears to have been expected in some quarters. However, it may be considered more favorable if present rates be maintained than if even higher prices had been realized, to suffer a decline when the bulk of the fine Wool clips come forward.

Sheepskins:—Sales by private contract are limited to about 100 bales, at from 4d. to 5½d., and the present stock, consisting in all about 200 bales washed and 1,300 bales unwashed Buenos Ayres, will be offered at our next public sales.

The following were the latest telegrams received at Liverpool on 30th March:—

Consols were steady yesterday at the improved quotations of Monday. There was a decline of ⅛ in Peruvian foreign stocks.

A telegram from Boulogne, dated yesterday, states that a fire broke out in the vaults of the Custom-house, and still continues.

General Grey continues in a helpless state. The following buletin has been issued:—"General Grey is gradually sinking, but totally unconscious of pain. Up to 12 o'clock, midnight, he was still alive."

THE JORDAN WAR.

DECIDED ATTITUDE OF GOVERNMENT.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS.

The general interest in the 'Jordan war,' compels us to publish all the preliminary decrees, documents, &c., so that the future English historian will find in our files the story of the struggle from the cradle to the grave. Consulting our own inclinations we should eliminate all such documents, and begin with the first cannon shot, but our duty as journalists compels us to begin everything with official translations. For those who entertain any scruples as to the constitutional rights of the National Government to interfere, the protest by the Entre Riano Bedchers at foot, must have high interest, whilst for those who follow step by step the march of the belligerents from the Government house to the battle field, the decree of the National Government also at foot, clears the decks. We have at present no less than four special friends in Entre Rios, who have gratuitously assumed the mantle of Sinbad. We therefore claim to take precedence of all our colleagues in the way of descriptions of future battles. Our letter from Paraná to-day contains more real news than is to be found in any other paper; Lopez Jordan may be regarded as on his last legs, his force only numbers 800 men, his own province is against him, and unless there is a flare up in Corrientes, we may expect to hear of his departure per Copernicus.

Department of War and Marine,
B. Ayres, April 25, 1870.

Considering—

1. That the National Government on hearing of the assassination of Gen. Urquiza had placed on the banks of the Uruguay an army of observation to secure the due fulfillment of National laws on neutrality in consequence of the state of affairs in the Oriental Republic.

2. That the National Government has disowned the appointment of Don Ricardo Lopez Jordan as Governor, from its illegality, since it took place when minds were still under the shock produced by the murder of General Urquiza and the Legislature was evidently cowed by the person who had prepared and directed the assassination of the constitutional Governor, and who took upon himself the responsibility of the crime.

3. That the assassination of the Governor, the intimidation of the Legislature, and the disappearance of the Judicial Power, which could not exercise its functions because the criminals were in league with the Government, having rendered impossible the condition laid down in Art. 6 of the Constitution which ought to precede the intervention of the National Government, so that this condition must necessarily be considered as fulfilled by the acknowledged notoriety of the events, and the state of affairs which materially hindered the constituted authorities of Entre Rios from addressing themselves to the National Government.

4. That notwithstanding its clear right of intervention the National Government had confined itself to disowning Lopez Jordan as Governor of Entre Rios, and to quartering the National army at different points of that province.

5. That Don Ricardo Lopez Jordan has pronounced himself openly in rebellion, urging the inhabitants of Entre Rios to wage war against the National authority, thus opposing himself in arms to the public power of the Nation, and trampling upon the Constitution.

For these considerations the President of the Republic—

DECREES:

1. That Ricardo Lopez Jordan, and all those who publicly abet him in his open hostility against the National Government, are guilty of treason against the nation, and shall be pursued and punished with all the rigor of the law.

2. That all the forces that may be deemed necessary shall march upon the Province of Entre Rios, to pursue the rebels and bring them to submission.

3. That Brigadier General Emilio Mitre is hereby appointed General-in-Chief of all the forces sent into the field in pursuance of this decree.

4. Let the National Guard of the Province of Entre Rios be called out, and that of the Provinces of Santa Fé and Corrientes be mobilized for the present, and the necessary orders be imparted to this end through the Department of War.

5. Let this be communicated &c.

Buenos Ayres, April 19.

In view of the situation of the Province of Entre Rios, the President of the Republic—

DECREES:

1. General Emilio Conesa is hereby appointed Commander-in Chief of the Army of Observation of the Parana.

2. The Minister of War is to select the various corps that are to form this army, ordering them to repair to their point of reunion.

PROTEST OF THE ENTRE RIOS BENCH.

Buenos Ayres, April 23.

The undersigned members of the Supreme Court of Entre Rios, assembled in majority, declare:

1. That they have left said Province, abandoning their posts, finding it impossible to fulfill their duties, because the authors and accomplices of the wilful murder of H. E. the Governor, Captain-General Justo José de Urquiza, had erected themselves into authorities, and seized the public force, as proved by the authentic and notorious documents bearing the signature of the person who assumes the name of legal Governor.

2. That the Bench, being thus deprived of the guarantees accorded by the Coustitution of the Province for the exercise of its duties, has been unable to bring the criminals to justice, although the Juez de Primera Instancia had begun to prosecute in the ordinary form, by verbal order of the President of the Supreme Court, given in the presence of the victim, to obstruct which prosecution one of the supposed murderers carried his audacity to the point of entering the dwelling of the Judge to take him to task, and intimidate him by this unheard of proceeding.

3. That the Supreme Court of Justice, in the name of the Judicial Power, as its head and legitimate organ, has disowned, although silently on the spot, by special resolution, the investiture of the Governorship of the Province of Entre Rios assumed by Ricardo Lopez Jordan, which is manifestly unconstitutional, since it is notorious that it was obtained from the Legislature under the influence of the dread and terror caused by the crime.

4. That the undersigned, having been debarred by circumstances beyond their control from meeting in the territory where the above events took place, to forward directly said resolution to General Lopez Jordan, or at least to publish it in the form that was practicable, in spite of the President's repeated summons to a meeting issued to the members of the Council, they consider themselves bound to give this manifesto or protest, limiting to this for the present their action, since they find themselves in another jurisdiction.

5, That in taking this step they act spontaneously and with perfect freedom, urged solely by a sense of their duty as magistrates, by their conscience as honest men and decision to save their honor as true Argentines.

Manuel Lucero.
Vicente P. Peralta.

IMPORTANT FROM PARANA.

Since I wrote you my last (18th inst.) we have had a more decided turn in public matters.

The intervention of the National Government has raised the spirits of everyone, and the decision against the murderers of Urquiza is efficacious.

We had on the 22nd the battalion of the line No. 3, Commander Ivanowsky, and yesterday we had the arrival of General Emilio Conesa with a battery of artillery.

Last night Colonel Antelo was talking with the General, and he started again for the camp at two o'clock a.m., to bring the men he had assembled here. I know General Conesa has appreciated Antelo's character very much.

Colonel Martinez, Chief of Police of La Paz, will join us with about 1000 men he has collected.

Colonel Navarro of Nogoya, will also join the National General in resisting the Government of Lopez Jordan.

We have had here to-day the Provisional Governor of Santa Fé, Don Simon Iriondo.

Yesterday Mr. Frugueiro arrived and started in the evening for La Paz,

According to what I told you in my last, the run on the Paraná Bank has not subsided, and yesterday it could not change its notes.

Some merchants receive the Paraná Bank notes, and others do not, as the Argentine Bank will not receive any more of those values as previously on account current.

As the largest amount of circulating medium here was particularly in small notes of the Paraná Bank, we meet a good many difficulties in getting on for small change.

General opinion is that Lopez Jordan will have very few followers in which case peace and order can be re-established shortly and without bloodshed,

The names of the Ministers appointed by Lopez Jordan are Don Juan A. Mantero and Don Pedro Lucas Funes, criminal judge, who not long ago condemned the office of the Obrero Nacional to be shut and the editor to be put in prison. Few persons here could suppose that Don P. Funes, who is a very learned and religious man would accept the ministry of Finance from Lopez Jordan's hands. He started on Friday for Buenos Ayres to proceed to Uruguay

I remain, gentlemen,
Yours sincerely,
PARANA.

MONTEVIDEO.

Monday.

The arrival and departure of the late Commander-in-Chief of the allied forces in Paraguay gave the 'gobemouches' of this city an interesting subject for attention. His Imperial Highness left here yesterday at noon. He was accompanied to the mole head by a distinguished crowd; amongst it were some members of the Cabinet and other high functionaries. The Prince was rowed out to the Galgo in the Port Captain's gig, and as she shot out to the Roads an imperial salute was fired from San José fort and taken up by all the war vessels in harbor. The Galgo being a fast ship the Count hopes to pass the anniversary of his birthday, the 28th, at home.

A very serious accident occurred yesterday on the Paso Molino tramway. The six o'clock train was greatly crowded and the passengers were sitting and standing on each other. While descending an incline at full speed the driver put on the break to slacken the pace a little. The chain at once snapped and, the carriage turned over, falling on its side and crushing two of the horses to death. Two of the passengers were severely hurt, receiving internal injuries; the others were more or less bruised and scratched. A crowd soon collected round the spot where the disaster occurred, and some of the light-fingered gentry with which the city is at present infested made a good 'haul' in the way of hats, umbrellas, outside coats, etc.; a few people lost their watches in the confusion. I am sorry to say but few of the delinquents were 'hauled up' afterwards, as they should have been, by the police.

A despatch was received here yesterday evening stating that the rebel forces had again passed to the South of the Rio Negro. The advanced guard of the National army was at Chuy under the command of Maximo Perez. General Castro was at San Ramon on the Santa Lucia river, and it was rumoured had defeated the revolutionists in a skirmish. A report has been circulated that Aparicio has given the National Commanders the slip, and is making forced marches to the river bank to be in readiness to act in concert with Blanco reinforcements from the other side. So many and such conflicting reports are circulated from hour to hour respecting the revolution that it is most difficult to come at anything reliable.

Dn. Manuel M. Caldeira, who was implicated in young Miranda's murder gave himself up to the Police yesterday.

The Siglo published on Monday a boletin with a stiff letter from J. P. Ramirez attacking the press of Buenos Ayres on the subject of Entre Rios.

On Sunday a great fire occurred in the Plaza Cagancha; the place had a quantity of hay in deposit, which of course at once took fire and lighted up the whole town. The sight was grand, many parties at a distance thought the whole Plaza was on fire: as usual, no water, and everything burnt down.

The bank difficulty it is generally believed is at last in the way of settlement. Some advances are to be made to the Government, The burning of the paper money is to be stopped for a while? No new emissions are to be made save for the purpose of giving new notes for old ones. Messrs. Larrobrousse, Chucarro and Ximeno are the only members who oppose the scheme.

Business never was so dull as at present; the houses are doing nothing. Some small sales have been made to army contractors, but trade in general has ceased to exist in Montevideo, never were times duller. Lastarria is the only man doing anything, he sells Urquiza's photographs, had he Lopez Jordan's he would sell still more.

The telegrams from Buenos Ayres are at times of the most alarming character, both as regards the war in Entre Rios and yellow fever in Buenos Ayres; people however are getting so accustomed to these sensational messages that they carry little weight

The banking question is being discussed to-day in the General Assembly, but the result has not yet transpired.

The "River Plate Cow" has proved a complete failure in England. The price obtained for the specimens of the race taken home by the Ariadne, about £5, will not pay the freight, and the sheep and horses met with an equally lukewarm reception, selling for 10s 6d and £11 10s respectively. We very much fear that this result may be looked on as conclusively unfavorable to the prospects of live cattle exportation from this country.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The ss. Copernicus arrived on Monday afternoon at Montevideo, having made a splendid run out in twenty-six days from Liverpool. The political news by this steamer may be dismissed as of slight importance, but the commercial advices are of the most satisfactory and encouraging description. River Plate produce in general maintains steadily the advanced values advised by last mail, with the exception of tallow, which is quoted steady but dull. Argentine securities of all descriptions continue in the ascendant; a notable improvement is quoted in Bonds and River Plate Bank Shares. The former have risen to 91, and the shares of the latter are quoted at 15 pm Railways have also advanced. These improved prices it should be observed were established prior to the intelligence of Lopez' death and the definite conclusion of the war reaching home. It may reasonably be anticipated that a further advance will have been attained when this news became known. As we ventured to predict, His Highness Prince Pierre Bonaparte has been acquitted by the High Court of Justice.

Dr. Velez Sarsfield, Minister of the Interior, left town yesterday by the first train on the Northern Railway, for Cordoba, to officially open the Central Argentine Railway, which is now completed to the terminus in that city and has been handed over to the Government engineers. It is to be regretted that the inauguration of this triumph of peace and industry should be coincident with the breaking out of another civil war, but it cannot be doubted that the latter will end to the benefit of the Republic at large by the speedy success of the National arms. Our brother-editor accompanies Dr. Sarsfield to Cordoba, and has undertaken to keep our readers informed on this interesting event.

H.I.H. Count D'Eu left Montevideo on Sunday at noon on board the war transport Galgo for Rio de Janeiro. As the Galgo forged slowly ahead from the harbor a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from the San José fort and all the foreign war vessels in the Roads. H.I.H. will probably arrive at Rio on the 28th, the anniversary of his birthday.

We remind the public that Goodison, the Wizard of the West, appears again to-night at the Alcazar. He will perform the feat of swallowing twenty four inches of a naked sword; an achievement that has been declared impossible by some parties, and has given rise to several large bets.

The Copernicus will be the homeward Royal Mail Steamer on the 9th prox. She will probably have a large number of passengers to England, as she came on here without calling at Rio, and is consequently free from any suspicion of taint from yellow fever. This steamer is expected in port to-day.

The managers of the Astronomical line of steamers are certainly public spirited, and when with their legitimate efforts to outstrip their competitors they mingle philanthropy, they are beyond praise. It is stated that the Copernicus has been pushed out to the River Plate direct, and pressed on to making a passage in twenty-five days in order that certain mysterious cases containing Bazaar treasures should arrive in time. We cannot vouch for the truth of this, but "si non e vero e ben trovato" and the cases are here, but the agitation that fills the breasts of the fair recipients of the insiduous gew gaws is extreme; as although the valuables are within their grasp, the fear of Custom's delays causes a palpitation. We trust gallantry and benevolence will warm the heart of Sr. Aguirre, and cause him to order the despatch at once and free of duty of all that is to enhance the already brilliant display prepared for the Coliseum on the 3rd of May. Be alive Custom-house clerks! lay aside the fatal cigarillo, and for once strive to do an ordinary days work in less than a week, and all will be forgiven and no questions asked.

The official declaration of the National Government that Lopez Jordan must be treated as a rebel and punished accordingly, and, that all the Federal power will be brought into action to this end, was published yesterday morning. General Mitre is to command in Chief, and Gelly y Obes and Conesa, take the leading subordinate commands. There were various rumours afloat yesterday respecting preliminary skirmishes having already taken place. We believe they were unfounded. General Mitre will probably act on the defensive till he is joined by the troops of the Line returning from Paraguay.

An accident occurred on the Tramway at Paso Molino, in Montevideo, the other day by which two people were severely injured, and others more or less contused. The mishap was caused by the carriage being overcrowded, and the break chain consequently snapping at a critical moment. Two of the horses were killed, the carriage tumbling over them. This accident should serve as a caution; it is wonderful the results were not fatal.

Yesterday we received the startling news from Chascomus that an Oriental gaucho wandering about the camps in that district had committed rape on two women in the neighborhood. After immense exertions on the part of the authorities of the town the fellow was caught, but to escape again at the very door of the Juzgado; he galloped off to the camp again and rode up to the house of a Scotch farmer, whose wife, with true national pluck, drew a pistol and threatened to shoot him on the spot if he got down from his horse. This remarkable heroism saved the poor woman's honor, and perhaps life. The fellow is still at large.

An Englishman recently arrived, whilst riding over to a friend's house in the camp, was attacked by two fellows, who set upon him in a terrible way. The stranger had no arms, but with the reins and bridle laid about him in such style that the astonished highwaymen found they had caught a Tartar; he felled them both and thrashed them until they bled at every pore and his bridle and reins were done up; he then tied them down and quietly drove off with both their horses 'recados,' etc.

It may interest our juvenile readers to know that Mr. Thomas Drysdale has received from England a splendid silver flower stand, which he purposes presenting to the Athletic Sports Committee, as a prize for a high jump standing. The prize eclipses everything hitherto presented to the Athletes, and should be placed on exhibition at Mackern's. Scotchmen, when they do give, give in earnest.

Our readers will learn with pleasure that the subscription list opened in this city for the family of the late much lamented Mr. Ford now amounts to three thousand pounds sterling.

Several Scotch farms we hear are about to be started at Jepenner. We think that the laird of the manor would consult his own interest by dubbing the townsland with some true Scottish name. Call the place, for instance, 'Auld Reekie;' the town has already a handsome kirk, and, as for the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Gibbie, he is a useful, excellent curate, and we believe the real stuff for a bishop.

The Proveedor which has been four months under repair at the Tigre and Colonia will resume running on the Asuncion line on Sunday next.

Sr. Sotto, who has just contracted with the Provisional Government of Paraguay, for the establishing of a bank of emission in Asuncion is expected in town shortly to make the necessary arrangements for the purpose. Previous to his departure from the Paraguayan capital, Count D'Eu addressed his soldiers in a farewell order of the day, in which he recapitulates all the leading events and battles of the war; our limited columns will not admit of our publishing it, owing to its great length. The Press of Asuncion complains of the number of public appointments that have lately been given to foreigners, to the exclusion of natives of the country.

Our provincial exchanges contain nothing of importance. The montonera raid on Rioja by Guyama will not, it is thought, prove anything serious. For several weeks past the works on the Central Argentine Railway have been urged forward night and day without intermission, the navvies working by moonlight, or large bonfires when the Queen of Night was not visible. The first train will run through to Cordoba on the 28th when the line will be officially opened by the Minister of the Interior. The Press of Cordoba is unanimous in calling on the local Government to support the Federal power against Lopez Jordan, who is characterized as the most cowardly of assassins.

There are at present fifteen Oriental citizens in prison here for complicity in Aparicio's revolutionary attempt; they will be confined at the pleasure of the National Government.

Another fatal quarrel took place a few nights ago between two peons in Calle Cordoba. One of them was fatally stabbed in the abdomen. The assassin was arrested the following day.

Dr. Carreras, President of the Supreme Court, is, we regret to learn, seriously unwell.

A batch of suspicious-looking characters landed at San Fernando on Sunday and greatly alarmed the neighborhood. An armed force was at once sent from town to look after them; they were supposed to be some of those who had escaped from Camayo island.

A colleague announces the resignation of Sr. Pellegrini as engineer to the Municipality.

It is worthy of remark that amongst those elected on Sunday to serve on the approaching Convention, the candidate who received most votes was Don Norberto de la Riestra, a gentleman who has always abstained from politics.

A Government school on the point of completion fell in ruins some days ago at Corrientes. The contract was a job and the builder ignorant of his business; no lives were lost.

Sr. Don Juan José Mendez, the city merchant, notifies a party bearing the same name that, if he does not alter his initials, his letters will be always opened at No. 20 Calle Chacabuco. Would it not be better for Mr. Mendez first to set the example, and dropping the Juan José, call himself hencefoward Fulton Mendez?

Mr. Albert Phillip's farewell benefit is definitely arranged for Monday next the 2nd prox. in the Franco Argentine Theatre. The Palermo Minstrels come out in great force. The full programme will be published to-morrow. Tickets may be obtained at once at Messrs. Mackerns.

We hear Sir Charles Mordaunt when he has had enough of sport in the Northern Republic intends coming down here to enjoy some 'huanaco' shooting. Sir Charles is, we have heard, a crack shot.

TRIAL OF PRINCE PIERRE BONAPARTE.

The trial of Prince Pierre Bonaparte for the homicide of Victor Noir at Auteuil commenced yesterday at Tours. The city presented an unusual aspect, as if some grand fête was in preparation. The spectators crowded on the Place and under the portico of the Palais de Justice. The shops in the Rue Royale, where photographs of Victor Noir and Prince Pierre, as well as of the members of the High Court, are sold, were besieged. Long before the opening of the proceedings the crowd outside the Palace of Justice had become immense, and by nine o'clock every place reserved for the public was occupied, a portion of the audience consisting of ladies.

The interior of the court-house has the form of an oblong parallelogram. At the upper end are seats for the seven judges, with the President, M. Glandaz, occupying the centre place. On the right side sits the Procureur Impérial, and lateral benches close by accommodate the forty jurymen; on the left is placed the chief clerk, and facing the jury is the bench for the accused. Further on are the desks for the reporters; the centre of this part of the court is reserved for the advocates, behind whom are the supplementary jurymen. Outside the bar are reserved seats for 200 persons, and farther back is standing room for about 150 others, and above these latter is a gallery able to contain about the same number of spectators.

The judges entered at half-past eleven and took their places, after which at 12·40 Prince Pierre was brought in by a Captain of Gendarmerie, dressed in black, and perfectly composed. The registrar then read the Imperial decree, convoking the High Court of Justice, and the ordinance of the Chamber of Accusations sending the Prince before the jury for trial. The calling over the names of the 88 jurymen, the drawing of lots for those to serve, and other preliminary proceedings next occupied about an hour. Eight jurors excused themselves in consequence of illness, or being over 70 years of age. Their places having been filled, the jury entered the Court. President Glandaz then made a short address to the court, explaining the exceptional jurisdiction in the present case, and directed the registrar to read the indictment, which has been published. The interrogation of the Prince was then proceeded with:—

The President: You were condemned in 1849?—I was then grossly insulted.

A lamentable article has been published by the Avenir Corse?—I wished to defend the honor of my family.

Questioned respecting the incidents at Auteuil, the Prince repeated exactly the recital made by him in his reply to the Juge d'Instruction.

Why did you enter the saloon with a revolver?—I always carry a revolver.

Your hand was on the revolver in your pocket?—To this the Prince made no reply, but stated afterwards that M. Fonvielle showed his pistol first.

Why did you fire upon M. Fonvielle, who endeavored to escape?—M. de Fonvielle endeavored to fire, and was taking aim.

By M. Flocquet, the counsel for the Noir family: Why was your pistol found fully loaded when you were arrested?—I reloaded, because I believed myself in danger from persons outside.

M. Lalmand, Secretary of M. Roidot, Commissioner of Police, read the deposition of M. de Fonvielle, made on the 10th of January, in which the Prince is accused of having struck a blow before firing.

M. de Fonvielle replated his version of the affair, and said he did not imagine that he was going to visit an assassin. The Prince replied, "Assassin, yourself," and proceeded to advert to the Orsini conspiracy. Questioned by the President, M. de Fonvielle declared that he himself was always armed. Had he not been he should have been killed at the Prince's house.

The Prince hereupon declared that M. Fonvielle's version was entirely false: the latter had invaded his house armed, and should not now be a witness, but a defendent in the cause.

In reply to M. Leroux, the Prince's council, M. de Fonvielle denied positively ever having said that the Prince had been struck by Noir.

The witness Grousset, manager of the Marseillaise, then arrived attended by two gendarmes. On his entering the court he said something, not heard by the public, but which caused murmurs from the people outside.

M. de Grandperret, the Procureur Impérial, told him that if he repeated this outrageous conduct he should be compelled to inflict a punishment upon him.

Mr. Groussett replied, but was interrupted by the President, who requested him to confine himself to the facts of the case. He than gave explanations, and in the course of his observations said that Prince Pierre's crime had caused a universal affright, and that he (the witness) had never better understood the sad condition into which eighteen years of imperial rule had plunged France.

M. de Grandperret stated that he did not wish to demand any greater penalty than that which the witness was already suffering in prison, but he requested that the witness should be reconducted thither, and that his written deposition should be read to the court.

The President acceded to this request, and the sitting closed at 5 p.m.

A correspondent of a contemporary telegraphs that "Fonvielle gave his evidence in a very excited manner, and contradicted himself in some of the particulars. Grousset was still more violent. He was asked if he was any relation of the accused, and replied, His mother had so many lovers that it was possible. He was twice called to order, and ultimately so far lost all control over himself that the President ordered his removal from the court in the custody of the gendarmes. As he was going out, Grousset turned to kiss Fonvielle, which caused the audience to laugh outright. After this scene the depositions were read over, and the court rose at about five o'clock. Grousset has been sent back to prison, and accused of being party to a plot against the prince. Henri Rochefort has been cited as a witness."

THE STEAMER 'LEOPOLDO'

To the Editors of the STANDARD,

Gentlemen,

Having read in your edition of yesterday an article referring to the steamer Leopoldo, of the Captain ordering the engineer to let the steam go down, so as to stop at Fray Bentos, and that Sr. Rodriguez ordered me to go on. I beg to state that such a thing never happened, as can be certified by the log kept by Sr. Rodriguez of the whole voyage, and that I and not Sr. Arteaga have been sent to prison since Saturday morning, for what I do not know.

Yours respectfully,
ROBERT SHAW,
Captain.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 26, 1870.

Ounces,	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
Nat. Bonds	64½

The Bond market ruled very slack to-day although the news from the rivers was favorable still there is a disinclination to dabble much in Bonds at present, until the polttical horizon becomes somewhat clearer,

The Cabinet meeting at the Government House to-day was much spoken of. General Bartholomew Mitre attended; it was decided that Gen. Rivas should at once start for Tucuman, that more artillery should be shipped to Entre Rios, and that further reinforcements be at once sent to Gualeguaychu. Col. Mateo Martinez, who is so well and favourably known on the Bolsa, has offered the Government his services, and several other gentlemen fired with patriotic enthusiasm, have offered to join the banner of Colonel Mateo Martinez. It was freely said on 'Change this afternoon that Don José Sala, will be on the gallant Colonel's staff. This unforeseen military ardour of the brokers has had an effect on the market.

There were no cash sales in the bond market to-day. For 30th April 40,000 at 64, and 64½. For May 4th 10,000 at 64½

Exchange operations rule active, bills on England were passed to-day at 49¼ and 49½, and on France at 5.15. The exchange operations in Montevideo attract attention here. The Comision Fiscal drew to-day and yesterday for about £80,000 stg. payable in Rio at 19.300, the takers are for the most part English houses here, who take to remit from Rio, which gives them an exchange of something over 51d. The Montevidean rate on Rio is equal to about 35.26 here.

There were buyers for Argentine Bank shares to-day at 7½ prom., no sellers; also buyers for Gas shares at 70 prom., no sellers, and for Bolsa shares at 90.

Money is less easy than last week. To-morrow some large amounts of bonds have to be received, but the money was got to-day at 12 per cent. per annum.

The sale of the valuable site with house, at the corner of Calles Chacabuco and Potosi was announced, 17 x 17, known as the Botica Angelita, for one million six hundred dollars, Sr. Magdalena purchaser.

Coal has taken a slight look up, chiefly owing to some purchases by the National Government. Several steamers are being taken up by the Government. To-day eight pieces of heavy artillery were shipped to Entre Rios.

Mr. Amorin, manager of the Maua Bank, arrived from Montevideo to-day. He reports every thing quiet there, and the impression general that the Lopez Jordan war will soon be over.

The general conviction on the Bolsa is that Lopez Jordan has only very few men, and that he will possibly retreat on Corrientes. Had he 2000 men as he said in his proclamation, it is to be supposed that ere this he would have fallen upon Mitre in Gualeguaychu, who is now each day getting stronger. Three regiments of regular troops have now landed at Gualeguaychu, which so strengthens Mitre's position that it is thought ere this he has taken the field, and that the next steamer will bring the news of a battle at or about Calá.

The important sale of D. Juan Cobo's estancia, partido San Pedro, with the stock, took place on the 24th. The attendance was numerous, and competition very sharp. The sheep (9 flocks mestiza and mestizonos) were sold at from $22½ to $28 m|c. 'al corte,' cattle $105 'al corte,' horses at splendid prices, up to $2,000 each, fine sheep 195, mestizo rams 180, 200, and some type rams at $1.800 to $3,200. The estancia, 1¾ leagues, with improvements, was sold to Don Raphael Cobo at $1,000,000. This latter price cannot be set down as anything like the real value, since there were parties present willing to pay near $2,000,000, but it being understood that Don Raphael wished to keep it in the family, all opponents withdrew, in testimony of the great popularity of this gentleman amongst all his neighbors. The price obtained for the sheep is but another proof of our assertion that they must go up in price. The losses in the South, coupled with the high prices for wool and tallow, have had a marked effect in stiffening prices, and we hope to see them worth 32 to 35 'al corte' before shearing, when we can safely count on a new era of prosperity for the poor sheepfarmer. The camps in the neighborhood of San Pedro are represented as being in first class condition. Some of the richest veins of land in the Province are in this partido. Two saladeros are worked in the town. Those present at the sale were very hospitably entertained. We understand that the machinery &c. all sold at good prices; in fact, for years we have not had such a successful estancia sale in this country.

The Cordillera left Montevideo early this morning; over 35 passengers from Buenos Ayres go in her. She entered Montevideo early on Monday morning, but the Chilian mails did not come up to-day.

The Copernicus will be up in the morning: she sails for England on the 9th with the mails.

The sale of Dr. Don Eduardo Costa's house in Calle Reconquista, almost facing Cranwell's is announced, 20x70, for the round sum of two millions four hundred thousand dollars to Mr. Decoud, who it is said is about to rent the house on lease for $22,000 per mes' for a hotel.

Sr Ibarra, a person of much experience in timber, has left for the upper Parana and Paraguay to explore the woods and report on the different kinds of timber, &c.

The La Croze tramway now runs cars from the Plaza Once to the corner of Calle Suipacha and Cangallo. This line is already doing a large business, and will be open to the Calle 25 de Mayo about the middle of next month. It will in a few months be connected with a return line from the old Plaza Mayo, along Potosi, to the Plaza Once; the fare, $2, is paid in small coins or medals, which have come out from the United States, and pass as current coin in the Plaza Once.

The receipts on the Flores road yesterday amounted to $2,300, which gives proof of the business; there can be little doubt now that the Flores road will be one of the most paying enterprizes in the country.

In the produce markets there is great animation, the wool arriving is at once sold at an advance of from $15 to $18 on last month's prices. To-day several lots were sold out of deposit at 70 to 75 per arr. These wools a month ago could not realise 60. A very fine lot has been sold at 80, and some very clean lamb's wool as high as 57. Tallow—a large consignment from Guerin's saladero Altamirano at 15½ rls. 2000 hides, loans have been sold to deliver at 15½ rls.

The news per Copernicus, with the exception of the unfortunate live cattle speculation, is most favorable. Argentine Bonds have risen to a figure hitherto unknown in England, 91, and this without any marked speculation, and long previous to the news of Lopez' death being known in England. Southern Railway shares also show an improvement, buyers at 24; Central Argentine, since the launching of the land scheme, are also more looked for; Northern Railway are firm at £9, but the stock that shows most improvement is the River Plate Bank, which has risen to £15 premium. Wool and hides are also up; tallow flat. We give the market reports at foot.

In the papers received to-day from Asuncion, we read a notice from a Paraguayan surrogate calling upon the heirs or creditors of the late James Bell of Montevideo to present their claims to the assets left in Asuncion by the deceased.

The railway in Paraguay is now doing so limited a trade that many anticipate the road will be soon closed; the line runs out to Paraguary, but traffic there is of little and passengers still less.

The commercial advices per Copernicus are as follows:

Wool—The sales at Havre in the week ending March 18 were 545 bales La Plata unwashed, 1f. 27½c. to 1f 33c the kilog.; 63 Chili unwashed, 1f. 60c.; 30 Russia, 4f. 90c. Since, B. Ayres unwashed, 122f. 50c. to 180f. the 100 kilogs.; Banda Oriental ditto, 220f., La Plata sheepskins unwashed, 95f. to 127f. 50c.

Tallow—The demand was not active at Havre in the week ending March 18. La Plata saladero ox was 53f. 50c. the 50 kilogs, sheep, 51f. 37½c. to 51f. 75c.; matadero 49f. 50c. to 51f. Since then Montevideo saladero ox 54f; La Plata sheep, 50f. 87½c. to 52f. At Paris on March 23, French, 102f. the 100 kilogs without octroi duty.

ANTWERP MARKETS.

Hides—Business has been checked by the small choice offering at the market, but liberal supplies being in course of landing, we are likely soon to have more activity at somewhat easier prices than those lattely paid by needy buyers, especially for dry matadero cow, which obtained a further advance of 1 and 2 francs, besides a public auction of 1000 damaged dry River Plate, which sold at high prices. Horse hides are but feebly supported, with sales of 100 salted Buenos Ayres, 31½ lbs at 95f., and 100 salted Rio Grando, 31½ lbs at 92f. Hide cuttings.—Sales were limited to a few mixed Gartas at 27f. and clippings at 26f.

River Plate Wool—The demand has been active, the sales reaching 2,600 bales, generally at an improvement of 2½ to 5 centimes upon February auction rates for wools of the new clip. Buenos Ayres Mestizo, usual assortment and of really good quality realized 1. 35c. all round, whereas 256 bales Fray Bentos, clean and light, were taken at 1f. 90c. The total sales since the commencement of March fall little short of 4,600 bales.

River Plate Tallow—No business reported; and prices were nominal at 25½f. for mutton and 25½f. for beef.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays an holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. 00) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules estabished by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

LA PROBIDAD

COMPAÑIA GENERAL ARGENTINA DE SEGUROS
(A PRIMA FIJA)
EN
BUENOS AIRES

Capital social: 1000,000$ fts. en 1,000 acciones de 1,000$ fts. cada una

PROSPECTO

De cuantas sociedades y empresas mercantiles ha formado la actividad humana, ninguna tan útil, ni tan exeata de peligros, como las Compañias de Seguros, unicas protejidas universalmente por los capitalistas, con plena confianza, de su éxito no podrá ser desgraciado, aunque la nececcsidad de su instituto no sea generalmente reconocida.

Siendo instituciones de prevision, ellas prestan el apollo mas eficaz a la propiedad, a la industria, al comercio y al crédito. Son la garantia del trabajo y de la economia de todas las clases de la sociedad, porque reparan todos los siniestros que menoscaban la fortuna, y mediante un corto sacrificio pecuniario, fundan la seguridad de un porvenir que no depende de nosotros. Considerando bajo este punto de vista resulta, pues, que los Seguros tienen un fin eminentemente moral y util. Basta echar una ojeada sobre la situacion de las Compañias de Seguros para convencerse de su prosperidad, de su desenvolvimiento y de la confianza de que gozan con justo titulo.

En Buenos Aires puédese citar, de ejemplo, la Compañia de Seguros Marítimos, que ha distribuido, entre sus accionistas, durante el curso de diez años, la suma de $ 6.224$, sobre 25,000$, capital desembolsado, lo cual da el interes anual de 45, 40 o/o.—Una Compañia de Seguros Maritimos en Rio Grande produjo, a sus socios, el año proximo pasado, un 90 o/o de beneficios.

Muchos mas hechos comprueban la utilidad que en el nuevo y viejo Continente reportan los capitales que toman participacion en las sociedades de Seguros, y las memorias anuales de estas participan beneficios tan considerables que, en verdad, se haria sospechosa si no se fundase en guarismos de exactitud incontestable.

En virtud de estas razones, los iniciadores de la Compañia "La Provindad" teniendo en cuenta el desenvolvimiento colosal de la riqueza en el Rio de la Plata, y los inmensos beneficios que el interes individual puede reportar por su establecimiento, asi que las utilidades, no menos del capital asegurador, desean propagar, en bien de todos, la idea del Seguro y dar al efecto a su Compañia, para que sea digna de su proposito, la estension suficiente a abarca en sus operaciones la seccion siguiente:

1° Seguros marítimos, fluviales y transportes por tierra.
2° Seguros contra incendios.
3° Seguros contra accidentes de ferro-carril. y mas tarde.
4° Seguros sobre la vida.

[Todas a prima fija].

La esplotacion de estas diversas clases de Seguros, debe comprenderse en las operaciones de la Compañia, como medio poderoso de alcanzar en ellas los resultados mas prontos y lucrativos.

Y por lo tanto, los iniciadores invitan a los Sres. Capitalista del Rio de la Plata a la suscricion de acciones, en la confianza de que se comprenderán la grande importancia de su pensamiento y la influencia que ha de ejercer en estos paises, ofreciendo demás, a los valores que constituyan la empresa un resultado tan halagüeño como seguro y pronto.

Los accionistas harán un desembolso efectivo de 5 o/o del valor escrito de cada accion, o sean 50 pesos fuertes, quedando de capital de reserva el otro 95 o/o.

Las acciones serán nominales.

Queda abierta la suscricion de acciones en el escritorio de la Sociedad

LANDS OF THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY COMPANY.

The Company are prepared to offer on advantageous terms to settlers, either as tenants or purchasers, parcels of their Lands lying alongside of their Line of Railway, connecting the City and Port of Rosario with the Capital of the rich Province of Cordoba.

1st. Small Farms of 20 to 40 "cuadras cuadradas," at their German and Swiss Colony of "Bernstadt," five leagues from the town of Rosario, and where about 70 families are now collected, and a small town laid out.

2d. Farms and Sheep Lands at the river Carcarañá, ten leagues from Rosario.

3d. The rich Lands of "Cañada de Gomez," where there is already an English and German population, in lots of one hundred "cuadras cuadradas," or four hundred and twenty acres, more or less. At this place an important town will eventually spring up, the plan of which is laid out.

4th. Lots in similar lots of one hundred cuadras, at the English settlement at "Los Leones," at the Fifth Station from Rosario.

The conditions on which these Lands will be disposed of, or leased, are, taking into consideration their very favorable position, alongside of a railway, the quality of the soil, and salubrity of climate, unprecedentedly advantageous to the immigrant, as well as to families already domiciled in other parts of the River Plate and Brazil.

Propositions for other portions of the Company's Lands, besides those above-mentioned, will also be received.
